POLICE VULNERABLE SECTOR CHECK (PVSC)

The Fort William First Nation First Response Team requires a submitted Police Vulnerable Sector Check (PVSC) to continue the application process for any applicant. The following instructions must be taken to receive the background check.

Please take the attached letter to the police station in your jurisdiction (Thunder Bay Police Service, OPP, APS). They will have you fill out a Criminal Records Search Form. Make sure to bring two pieces of identification with you. This application process should be FREE of charge if you include the letter below. If not, you may have to pay the volunteer fee which is $25.00 + HST or lower.

Once the search is completed, the police will return the results to you. The results may only be used for the purpose of applying as a volunteer for the Fort William First Nation Medical First Response Team.

Should you wish to continue the application process, you are to forward the results of the received background check to the Member Services Coordinator. The Member Services Coordinator, Chief and Deputy Chief will review your application and Criminal Records Check.

If you have any questions, please contact Mason Morriseau the Fort William First Nation First Response Team Coordinator at 1(807)631-3117 or at MasonMorriseau@fwfn.com. Other contacts may be found at fwfnfirstresponse.com.

POLICE VULNERABLE SECTOR CHECK (PVSC)

To whom it may concern;

The Fort William First Nation First Response Team has received an Application Form from:

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

The applicant is to attend the police station in the jurisdiction in which the applicant resides to have a Level 3 Police Vulnerable Sector Check (PSVC) completed. Once the search is completed, the results are to be forwarded to the named volunteer who will be responsible to submit the results to the Fort William First Nation First Response Team to continue the application process.

Please ensure that the results are marked for “Fort William First Nation First Response Team Only”.

This letter is to ask that the cost to submit the background check application for volunteers to be waived as this background check is for a volunteer First Response Team.

If you have any questions, please contact Mason Morriseau the Fort William First Nation First Response Team Coordinator at 1(807)631-3117 or at MasonMorriseau@fwfn.com. Other contacts can be found at fwfnfirstresponse.com.

Thank you.
